

Online Conference Inclusion in Higher Education in Stories

March 14, 2024, 9:00-14:00 CET

via ZOOM

Program

- 9:00-9:30 Introduction:
About the “Changing Our Story” Project
(Petr Šimon, Pavla Hrabačková)
- 9:30-10:00 Presentation of the Online Course
“Inclusion at Universities in Stories”
(Adéla Klimková, Radek Vorlíček)
– The online course focuses on creating and strengthening inclusive learning environments at higher educational institutions. The course is designed for (not only) university lecturers, students, and counselling staff and is based on the principles of sharing, inspiration, and reflection.
- 10:00-10:30 Group Activities on Storytelling and Inclusive Education
“Storytelling” Session led by Janette Motlová, in Slovak without translation – Introduction of storytelling as a tool in teaching and life in general that can promote inclusion.
“Inclusion” Session led by Tamara N. Lewis Arredondo, in English without translation – Interactive workshop on the topic of inclusion.
- 10:30-11:00 Break
- 11:00-11:10 Documentary Presentation
(Sreerekha Mullassery Sathiamma)
One of the outcomes of the course will be a documentary film that captures the story of the journey of collaborative learning and the actual progress of the project, including all its triumphs and pitfalls.
- 11:10-11:45 Sneak Peek from the Film + Discussion with the Director (John Akerman Özgüc)
- 11:45-12:00 Break
- 12:00-12:30 Presentation of the Student Project
(Fenna Milbauer)
Student involvement was a key activity within the project. The summer schools, virtual meetings, and workshops produced zines and artworks that will be presented in a joint exhibition.
- 12:30-13:00 Presentation by Naomi van Stapele, who will offer different perspectives and approaches to the topic of inclusive learning environments.
- 13:00-13:15 Break
- 13:15-14:00 Where Next?
Presentation of other university projects and activities focusing on inclusion (not only) and joint debate + closing remarks.